

Saturday

13.08.2022

14.00 Uhr

Mariannenstrasse 6, 10997 Berlin

ILLUSTRATION FOR SOCIAL EQUALITY

We are a creative lab for art and culture projects

Website - <https://ousa.info/startseite-de/>

Instagram
@ousa.collective

Creative Empowerment Workshop - intersectional feminist illustration

Illustration as an act for more empowerment, representation and participation.

Using creativity techniques and the medium of illustration, we strengthen the participants' sense of belonging to each other in a discrimination-free space. Here the participants can meet and exchange ideas. In creative actions, they are encouraged to creatively negotiate their experiences and life realities in order to create new, self-empowering narratives together, if necessary.

No previous experience is required!

Ousa Collective
Tel: 01577 2190259
www.ousa.info

Registration via newsletter@schokofabrik.de

This workshop will be in English but German translation is always possible ;)

Participation is open to all FLINTA* interested people who feel Black, person of color or a person with a (family) migration history who experiences racist exclusion.